To ensure student success through supervised groups receiving support and advising from CSCY faculty or staff. Approved Cohort students will receive a laptop/tablet while qualified for the program (subject to availability).

Major in a degree within Computer Science & Cybersecurity at Southern Utah University Complete and pass CS 1410 (or equivalent transfer course) with a grade of C- or better

Maintain good academic standing Continue majoring in and graduate with a degree within Computer Science & Cybersecurity Schedule and meet with assigned cohort advisor during each semester (Fall and Spring only)
Discuss a plan, schedule, and progress toward degree during the meeting with the cohort advisor

2. resent
Maintain the device in good working condition
Student is liable for loss, physical damage, and misuse
Not sell, exchange, or gift the device Present device to faculty cohort advisor during semester meeting to ensure that the device has been maintained and is in working condition.

e` md   l

4. Attach a minimum one-page, double-spaced paper explaining your need for a laptop/tablet through this program to the CSCY Admin Assistant listed below. CSCY Committee will review and make the decision.   le- eo
2. If issued a device, submit a double-spaced paper   evi ra   s   mrad   dasur a mr anti ooooo